ROBERT SMITH

Integration Consultant

info@qwikresume.com | https://Qwikresume.com

Developing the interface design documents for all the interfaces, and also Working on business process integration and automation projects based on Webmethods integration platform with the following clients.

DECEMBER 2003 – OCTOBER 2004

INTEGRATION CONSULTANT - ABC CORPORATION

- Created the framework of software, process, and infrastructure to facilitate the flow of information within the enterprise.
- WIA designed and developed the messaging infrastructure, which also includes Common Message Initiative and Common Component Initiative.
- Worked on monthly statistics reports Worked with WebSphere Application Server.
- Developed re-usable Sub flows for Exception Handling, Auditing and Logging.
- Designed, developed and implemented customized consultative on-boarding solutions for 4 Fortune 500 companies and 5 RIA Firms.
- Collaborated with Presidents, CEOs and other key executives to plan and manage projects of $15+ billion in private client, advisory and institutional assets.
- Built relationships with various management teams to create and lead project groups.

2001 – 2003

INTEGRATION CONSULTANT - DELTA CORPORATION

- Synopsis General Electric is one of the major consumer finance industries.
- As a part of the business GECF is in the process of adding UI to its mainframe customer account servicing system (CASS/FDR).
- Project will facilitate the CSR to get the account-related data on UI from backend CASS/FDR.
- This will improve the present green screen approach.
- This transaction from front end through middleware to backend and retrieval or update of the database is done in standard Client-Server environment.
- Mercator 6.5.2 is used as the middleware in this environment.
- Provides a unique, powerful solution for enabling the integration of applications across the enterprise, between businesses, or with external Web users.

EDUCATION

GED

© This Free Resume Template is the copyright of Qwikresume.com. Usage Guidelines

SKILLS

Project Management, Technical Implementations.