ROBERT SMITH

Language Pathologist

info@qwikresume.com | https://Qwikresume.com

Professional Resume as a Speech-language Pathologist Seeking a position as an English speaking/bilingual-in-Spanish SLP in home health settings.

AUGUST 2007 – JUNE 2011
LANGUAGE PATHOLOGIST - ABC CORPORATION

- Conducted evaluation and therapy services for approximately 60 children with a variety of developmental speech and language disorders.
- Consulted to parents, teachers and staff.
- Participated in curriculum/staff development.
- Participated in Medicaid billing procedures (MO Health Net).
- Collaborated with the early intervention team in providing speech-language therapy services.
- Treated infants and toddlers with developmental delays.
- Provided diagnostic and therapeutic services to students and maintained student records including progress notes, and consultation logs.

2006 – 2007
LANGUAGE PATHOLOGIST - DELTA CORPORATION

- Full time Speech-Language Pathologist Clinician II.
- Promoted from Clinician I, Sept.
- Provide in/out-patient care in the pediatric and adult divisions of the Otolaryngology Dept.
- Provide in-patient and out-patient care in the Child and Adolescent Psychiatry Dept.
- Clinical responsibilities include evaluation, consultation and treatment of disorders in pediatric speech and language, pervasive developmental disorders, pediatric and adult swallowing, pediatric and adult tracheotomy, adult head and neck cancer, and pediatric and adult voice.
- Specialty clinics include pediatric airway, NICU, PICU, and adult TEP recipients.
- Proficient in use of the Kay Nasometer, Kay Multidimensional Voice Program, insufflation testing, and review of nasoendoscopic and stroboscopic exams for diagnosis and treatment of voice and palatal disorders.

EDUCATION

Doctor of Education in Educational Leadership - (Baker University - Baldwin City, KS)

© This Free Resume Template is the copyright of Qwikresume.com. Usage Guidelines

SKILLS

Medical speech pathology, dysphagia, early intervention, language disorders, autism.