Work Experience

5th Grade Teacher

Joe Lee Johnson Steam Academy - 2017 – Present

- Providing students the opportunity to learn through their own problem-solving skills.
- Creating lessons through collaboration guided by our engineering design model.
- Conferring with my students to help to self-monitor their progress and be accountable for their learning.
- Allowing students to be creative and practice their unique style of learning.
- Analyzing data with students to determine areas of strength and areas for reteaching.
- Facilitating community circles with students on social, emotional, and behavioral skills.
- Teaching and grading of approximately 85 students in reading, history, vocabulary and spelling (other responsibilities as assigned).

Teacher

XYZ - 2015 – 2017

- Developed and applied specialized management techniques through the data collected from FBAs based on the needs of individuals as well as the group.
- Used data from formal and informal testing to form small, highly-individualized, math and reading groups.
- Used manipulatives, interactive media (SmartBoard, videos, etc.), and teacher-made differentiated assignments to make concepts accessible to students with different learning styles.
- Created and implemented consistent classroom routines and structure to provide students with a safe and predictable learning environment.
- Utilized students strengths to build self-confidence and become successful learners.
- Engaged students in Hands-on Learning through real-world Math applications and Science labs.
- Administered testing, progress monitored, and analyzed class performance.
