

Robert Smith

Aerospace Propulsion Journeyman II

PERSONAL STATEMENT

Aerospace Propulsion Journeyman carries out repairs, modifications, and manufacturing new parts as it relates to ship repair and modernization. Work includes small and large assembly, machining of steel, alloys and aircraft assemblies.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Aerospace Propulsion Journeyman II ABC Corporation - April 2010 - April 2014

Responsibilities:

- Researched and analyzed data - Removed, installed, inspected, repaired, and modified systems, modules, and components.
- Disassembled and assembled systems adhering to prescribed procedures.
- Prepared components for installation, storage, or transportation.
- Tested multiple components using bench mockups and test equipment.
- Selected, used, and cared for special tools, hand tools, and test equipment required for performing day to day operations.
- Used and disposed of hazardous waste and materials according to regulations and procedures that were in place.
- Analyzed, interpreted, and recommended maintenance actions based on unscheduled component removals and monitoring system data.

Aerospace Propulsion Journeyman Delta Corporation - 2007 - 2010

Responsibilities:

- Performed proper scheduled/unscheduled maintenance practices on 28 C-130 J model aircraft valued at $1.8B Properly uses correct technical data/.
- Troubleshooting, repairing and calibrating electronic and mechanical components and subsystems Troubleshoot faulty gearbox, generated 5 man team to .
- Analyzed and fixed a broken electrical sensor on a aircraft engine starter ensuring aircraft mission was able to be completed Operated a one man .
- Anchored 7 member team on a one-time inspections, safety-wiring 336 quick disconnect clamps on 7 aircraft; prevented catastrophic in flight engine .
- Performed inspections of F-15, KC-10, and the C-5 aircrafts.
- Performed modifications, repair, and rigging of major aircraft components Skilled troubleshooter in flight controls, hydraulics, engine components, .
- Maintain f16 Pratt and Whitney f100 220/229 turbine engines Complete all upgrade and current training Remove and maintain all components according to .

CONTACT DETAILS

1737 Marshville Road,
Alabama
(123)-456-7899
info@qwikresume.com
www.qwikresume.com

SKILLS

Jet Engine Mechanic, Mechanical.

LANGUAGES

English (Native)
French (Professional)
Spanish (Professional)

INTERESTS

Climbing
Snowboarding
Cooking
Reading

REFERENCES

Reference - 1 (Company Name)
Reference - 2 (Company Name)

Education

Bachelor's of Science- (California State Polytechnic University - Pomona, CA)