Work Experience

Barber

ABC Corporation - May 2011 - September 2013

- Responsibilities are to cut and style clients hair as per their requirements
- Responsible for scheduling my clients and keeping my clients happy, as well as running a well sanitized and clean work area meeting the state requirements.
- Promote myself as much as I could to keep my clientele growing, which lead to me always having to be professional at all times and and very open-minded because I was communicating with a different variety of people each and everyday.
- Became a well known barber all over the city due to my success.
- Demonstrated haircutting skills first and foremost.
- Ensure that each client got the style he or she was looking for so that they would be happy, return, and also promote my business.
- Find ways to draw clients into the shop by setting up haircut deals, such as discount cards, free back to school cuts, Sunday back to school cuts....etc.
