

ROBERT SMITH

Childbirth Educator

info@qwikresume.com | LinkedIn Profile | Qwikresume.com

Registered Nurse with experience in leadership and mentoring employees. Has experience teaching adult learners the skills and information necessary to do their job appropriately. Passionate about patient safety and the delivery of quality health care. Have been involved in quality improvement, risk management, and accreditation activities.

EXPERIENCE

Childbirth Educator

ABC Corporation - AUGUST 2014 - AUGUST 2015

- Demonstrated communication skills, technical problem solving, and analytical skills.
- Pediatrician attended classes.
- Demonstrated skills in organizing, prioritizing, and problem-solving under the direction of the team demonstrated competencies in evidence based nursing practice, making clinical decisions using the best available research evidence, clinical expertise, and patient preference.
- Identified each patients requirements in accordance with regulatory standards and U.M.H.policies and procedures.
- Conducted Chart Review; for standards of care, policy and procedures, sentinel events with compliance while implementing the steps of the nursing process in assessing and rendering physiological and psychological care for patients.
- Attended a course, and began teaching monthly weekend classes.
- Enjoyed all aspects of teaching and being back in touch with that side of nursing again.

Childbirth Educator

Delta Corporation - 2013 - 2014

- Joseph-Martin Hospital, Martin, KY.
- Mary Washington Hospital Fredericksburg, VA.
- Prepare woman and their support system for the experience of childbirth by providing education related to pregnancy and birth.
- Taught basic birthing classes in a safe, age appropriate setting for teenage mothers.
- Provided one on one care in a group home setting for teenage pregnant and parenting mothers.
- Provided a safe, loving and compassionate environment where these moms and children could learn and grow with the hope they would one day be .
- Managed medications, conducted routine drug screening, assisted with therapy sessions, parenting classes and activities of daily living.

EDUCATION

- Masters in Adolescent Education - (Hunter College)

SKILLS

Public Health Practice, Team Leadership, Graduate School Teaching.