

ROBERT SMITH

Echo Technologist

info@qwikresume.com | LinkedIn Profile | Qwikresume.com

Seeks to perform all aspects of adult echocardiography with the highest quality possible and to continuously increase knowledge in the field.

EXPERIENCE

Echo Technologist

Duke Regional Hospital - JULY 2014 - MAY 2020

- Performed adult echo, pediatric echo, stress echo, and TEE.
- Assisted medical staff with special/invasive procedures.
- Entered patient demographics, verifies order to undertake examination, and performs echocardiographic study based on patients medical history.
- Explained examination procedure and reassures patient and family to ensure comfort, understanding, and cooperation.
- Instructs/teaches scanning techniques specific to adult cardiac anatomy.
- Maintains echo equipment in good working condition and reports malfunction to chief technologist as needed.
- Participates in continuous quality improvement initiatives in echocardiography.

Echo Technologist

Delta Corporation - 2011 - 2014

- D, M-Mode, Doppler, Color Doppler studies Preliminary reports Assistance in TEE.
- Cardio Diagnostic Center Echocardiography/Vascular Lab.
- D, M-mode, color flow mapping and cardiac Doppler echocardiography in geriatric age and adults.
- Responsible for all cardiac ultrasound procedures and related computer/paperwork.
- Echocardiograms Assisted with TEES Stress Test EKGS Meditech Centricity Sterilized equipment and properly disposed of contaminated supplies.
- D, M-mode, color flow mapping and cardiac Doppler echocardiography in geriatric age and adults.
- Responsible for all cardiac ultrasound procedures and related computer/paperwork.

EDUCATION

- Certificate in Echocardiography - 2001(University of Maryland -

Baltimore, MD)

SKILLS

Echo, Vascular, Abdomen, GYN, Small Parts, General Ultrasound.