

ROBERT SMITH

Electronic Warfare Technician

E-mail: info@qwikresumc.com

Phone: (0123)-456-789

SUMMARY

Working well in a high-pressure environment. Well organized and efficient. Strong training skills. Skilled at organizing complex project, defining project priorities, and delegating task. Self-starting, goal-oriented strategist whose confidence, perseverance and vision promote success. Dependable, can work without supervision.

SKILLS

Microsoft Excel, SAP ERP, Lean Manufacturing, Program Management.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Electronic Warfare Technician

ABC Corporation - December 1996 – December 2005

- Executed daily operations of maintenance and repairs.
- Wrote, designed and produced reports, briefs for CIC and Commanding Officer of ship.
- Trained and managed 5 junior technicians on ship and achieved significant improvements in their productivity.
- Trained over 300 students in schematic reading, electronic repair, electronic maintenance, and electronic warfare.
- Analyzed and interpreted test data.
- Supervised 13 employees, scheduled work hours, resolved conflicts.
- Successfully managed a 6-person team re-writing curriculum for electronic classes bringing classes more up to date.

Electronic Warfare Technician

Delta Corporation - 1992 – 1996

- Deployed on Global War on Terrorism operations.
- Compiled, maintained, and led PACAFs Hazardous Munitions Handling certification course.
- Maintained, tested, and reprogrammed all EW systems.
- Salary 54,000.00 USD Per Year Hours per week 40 Chemical Biological Incident Response Force Electronic Warfare technician Duties Signals .
- Supervise, direct, and provide guidance and technical expertise on all aspects of employment of SIGINT/EW personnel, systems and facilities.
- Coordinate operations in support of tactical, strategic, and national level SIGINT/EW missions and include the management, collection, processing, .
- Decipher signals using radar and satellite equipment.

SCHOLASTICS

- BA