

ROBERT SMITH

Electronic Warfare Technician

info@qwikresume.com | <https://Qwikresume.com>

To obtain a career with a reputable professional company and to contribute exceptional military-technical, mechanical, and leadership abilities to this company.

MAY 2007 - MAY 2011

ELECTRONIC WARFARE TECHNICIAN - ABC CORPORATION

- Responsible for maintaining electronic detection and deception systems.
- Routinely worked with classified information and technical material in support of national security.
- Troubleshoot malfunctions down to specific components and completing wiring maintenance if necessary.
- Responsible for managing a shift of airmen and delegating jobs in order to maintain the B-52 airframe while coordinating with other shifts in maintaining squadron readiness.
- Operated a wide variety of equipment including different lifts, trucks, and generator systems required to complete maintenance and up-keep on the B-52 airframe.
- Certified and trained on all of these pieces of equipment in order to complete the mission.
- Made sure to volunteer and help out other shops in the routine maintenance, engine swap, washing, and re-fueling when necessary to ensure complete readiness of the B-52 airframe.

2004 - 2007

ELECTRONIC WARFARE TECHNICIAN - DELTA CORPORATION

- Test, troubleshoot and repair electronic components and integrated circuitry to the intermediate-level using standard and automated technical orders.
- Perform period maintenance inspections on 36 AN/ALQ-184 electronic countermeasure pods.
- Complete intermediate time compliance technical order modifications.
- Determine requirements for maintenance repairs and supply requisitions.
- rd Class (EW3) Operated and repaired equipment used in enemy platform and missile detection.
- One of the last rates in the Navy that operates AND repairs the same equipment.
- Obtained a Secret Security.

EDUCATION

B.S. In Technology Management

SKILLS

Microsoft Office Products, EPIC, GE IDX, Medical Registration, Supervisor, Manager.