

Objective

Emergency managers think of disasters as recurring events with four phases: Mitigation, Preparedness, Response, and Recovery. The following diagram illustrates the relationship of the four phases of emergency management.

Skills

Technical Skills, Management.

Work Experience

Emergency Management/Supervisor

ABC Corporation - November 1991 – May 1996

- Conducted regional or district-wide exercises.
- Evaluated the readiness of the division and/or district capabilities
- Monitored controls for the sound financial management of all emergency preparedness.
- Responded and recovery functions.
- Planned the work to be accomplished by subordinates to include setting and adjusting short-term priorities.
- Developed contingency and disaster preparedness plan to minimize casualties.
- Damaged from natural disasters, major accidents, wartime, and other military operations.

Emergency Management

Delta Corporation - 1989 – 1991

- Normal color vision
- Ability to speak distinctly
- Possess a valid state drivers license to operate government motor vehicles
- Qualification to operate government motor vehicles and vehicular equipment for "Maintenance Purposes Only"
- No record of claustrophobia or claustrophobic tendencies
- ASVAB score of 62 on General
- This is Dummy Description data, Replace with job description relevant to your current role.

Education

Ph.D. in Nuclear Engineering - (University of New Mexico)