

Objective

To obtain a Field Artillery Officer position in a growing company in Montana where I can apply my skills in operations and personnel management to foster company development and personal growth and experience.

Skills

Microsoft Office, Quickbooks, Multitasking.

Work Experience

Field Artillery Officer

ABC Corporation - May 2008 – February 2013

- Served in a variety of functions to include Platoon Commander, Fire Direction Officer, Battery Executive Officer, Liaison Officer, and Battalion Assistant Logistics Officer.
- Supervised the embarkation and logistical support for multiple Battalion and Battery level exercises, to include supporting distributed and split operations.
- Increased the operational readiness of Battery B by more than 20% through the implementation of specific training events and utilized problem solving and communications skills to effectively supervise the embarkation of equipment and personnel for 3 separate training exercises.
- Led 35 Marines in combat for 7 months in Afghanistan.
- Served as the Fire Direction Officer and Platoon Commander; provided hundreds of artillery and mortar rounds in support of troops under enemy fire in the execution of 168 fire missions.
- As a Liaison Officer, supervised the employment of artillery in firing over 1700 rounds.
- Implemented standard operating procedures for fire support teams which reduced mission preparation time by 40%.

Field Artillery Officer

Delta Corporation - 2004 – 2008

- Effectively managed US Army government property valued at over $60 million; directed the combat operations, training, and welfare of a field .
- Captain - Brigade Fire Support Officer, 2nd Heavy Brigade Combat Team, 1st Infantry Division Reduced enemy mortar and rocket attacks on US bases in .
- performing roles from Fire Direction Officer to Assistant S3.
- Honorably discharged with the rank of Captain.
- Manage 35 soldiers one weekend per month; responsible for constructing detailed and original training plans incorporating numerous variables and .
- Military Accomplishments --Consistently achieved highest ratings from peers as well as superior officers, resulting in promotion to First Lieutenant.
- Maintained 95% retention rate, normal rate is 50%-70%, with soldiers through effective leadership and maintaining a positive operational environment.

Education

B.S. In General Science