

ROBERT SMITH

Food Inspector I

info@qwikresume.com | LinkedIn Profile | Qwikresume.com

To obtain a challenging career where job skills and experience can be utilize to the fullest extent.

EXPERIENCE

Food Inspector I

ABC Corporation - MARCH 2014 - MARCH 2016

- Inspected the swine head for all fecal, intestine and milk along with foreign materials, hair, and abscesses.
- Cut and inspected the mandibular lymph nodes for abnormalities and diseases such as tuberculosis.
- Checked for diseases such as Epithelioma or Lymphoma which can indicate a systemic condition and need to retain for veterinary disposition.
- Condemned any carcass/viscera showing signs of disease or unwholesomeness.
- Inspected the viscera and use the conditions of the lymphatic system and the organs to determine if the animal is in good health.
- Palpated the organs and nodes to check for correct color, size, and texture.
- Watched for indicators such as petechiae or nephritic kidneys or blue-tinged liver indicating possible avian leucosis.

Food Inspector

Connecticut Department Of Consumer Protection, Food And Standards Division - 2013 - 2014

- Conducting State and Federal food manufacturing inspections of high risk manufacturers and distributors.
- Reviewing Seafood HACCP documents and conducting a review of the firms ability to adhere to State and Federal seafood regulations and requirements.
- Collecting evidence, labels and samples to support and generate State and Federal reports.
- Reviewing new applications and conducting pre-operational inspection.
- Attending trainings offered by the FDA, including "Juice HACCP" and "Acidified Foods"; Monthly sampling of produce for either pesticide residues testing or microbiological testing.
- Assigned to the State Emergency Operations Center as the liason for food and manufacturing data during emergences..
- This is Dummy Description data, Replace with job description relevant to your current role.

EDUCATION

- Current Student, Associates Degree in Human Services Academic - 2012(NTC - Wausau, WI)

SKILLS

Food Safety, Management.