PERSONAL STATEMENT

To continue the career progression with the company by expanding the coordination, management and directing the technical skills and expertise into challenging areas considering aspects of vision and mission of the company.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Junior Geotechnical Engineer
ABC Corporation - September 2001 – October 2002
Responsibilities:
- On-site subsurface exploration, testing, observation, and performance monitoring.
- Recommendation of foundation design parameters for different types of structures.
- Review and analysis geotechnical data from field and laboratory testing.
- Consultation for construction material selection, compatibility and acceptability and soil stabilization and ground improvement.
- Creates designs, calculations, and drawings under the supervision of an experienced engineer.
- Writes Geotechnical reports and memos. Performs Geotechnical fieldwork, including subsurface investigation and inspections.
- Collects and analyzes data under the supervision of an experienced engineer.

Geotechnical Engineer
ABC Corporation - 1999 – 2001
Responsibilities:
- Reviewed permit applications for uranium mining operations and trona (soda ash) operations.
- Evaluated proposed mining plans and post-mining topography for conformance to state regulations and good engineering practices.
- Used computer analysis techniques to evaluate the stability of high walls and impoundment dikes during and after completion of mining.
- Receives and reviews various shop drawings for projects.
- Participate in onsite site investigations at various sites in the area.
- This is Dummy Description data, Replace with job description relevant to your current role.
- This is Dummy Description data, Replace with job description relevant to your current role.

Education

PhD. in Structural Engineering - 1998 (Moscow State Automobile & Road Tech. University)