

ROBERT SMITH

Manual Lathe Operator

Phone: (0123)-456-789 | Email: info@qwikresume.com | Website: Qwikresume.com

SUMMARY

Objective is to gain employment in a skilled manufacturing position by making use of current knowledge base and skills set, as well as provide the opportunity to learn new skills and advance my career in manufacturing, Operate any type and size of single spindle or multiple spindle on a variety of operations (drilling, reaming, boring, tapping, spot facing, countersinking, etc). Using all tools, jigs, fixtures, and gages necessary to perform operations.

CORE COMPETENCIES

Microsoft Office Word, MasterCam.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Manual Lathe Operator

ABC Corporation - November 1965 – June 2006

Key Deliverables:

- Made final product requires specialized skill/knowledge of machine and process.
- Verified dimensional requirements, unloads and may transfer materials using overhead cranes/forklift.
- Worked with unconventional types of materials.
- Maintained and made minor repairs to equipment.
- Followed all safety rules and practices.
- Operated wet cut mori seiki manual lathes to produce sub component parts to produce Honda torque converters.
- Ran the manual lathe and fix parts that were ncr during in process work.

Manual Lathe Operator

Delta Corporation - 1961 – 1965

Key Deliverables:

- Polish crankshafts down to specified size using different hand tools.
- Operate polishing lathes.
- Drive forklifts to load and unload crankshafts on/off.
- General Machinist fabricated precision parts for production.
- First op turning barrel stock for rifles.
- Diameters and 60 ft.
- Lengths holding as low as .0002 (tenths) print tolerances for both size and runout.

EDUCATION

- GED