

Objective

Over 3 years of Experience Medical Writer in Creating educational materials for highly educated health care and pharmaceutical professionals. Understanding of complex, biomedical topics from multiple sources and distills into audience-appropriate learning tools in varied printed and electronic formats.

Skills

Medical Writing, Active Listening.

Work Experience

Medical Writer

Independent - 2001 – 2003

- Experienced in literature searches through several search databases.
- Experienced with manuscript and poster preparation.
- Drafted, edited, and submitted manuscripts to academic journals.
- Drafted, edited, and submitted Clinical Study Reports, NDAs, PSURs, STDs, and other regulatory documentation.
- Drafted and edited marketing materials. Participated in strategic planning and project meetings with internal and client teams as needed.
- Planned, developed, and wrote materials as assigned, worked under the close supervision of Medical Directors on specific initiatives to ensure alignment with strategic objectives.
- Learned product and diseased state information necessary for successful fulfillment of each task, including key strategic issues.

Medical Writer

Delta Corporation - 2008 – 2020

- Developed high-quality training materials for pharmaceutical and biotechnology clients for a variety of target audiences including pharmaceutical sales.
- Authored 25 to 30 clinical study report patient safety narratives per week for phase 3 global clinical trials for cardiovascular product Sorted.
- Researched, reviewed, summarized, correlated, and indexed medical information for future retrieval based on keywords and content.
- Wrote protocols and protocol amendments for phase 1 studies (bioequivalent, ascending dose, dose-ranging).
- Supported the creation and delivery of content across medical communications projects.
- Supported the preparation of, and participate in, client meetings.
- Worked with the Client Solutions team to meet project deadlines.

Education

High School Diploma