

ROBERT SMITH

Newborn Hearing Screener

info@qwikresume.com | LinkedIn Profile | Qwikresume.com

As a Newborn Hearing Screener, responsible for performing mandated hearing screening tests for newborn infants, providing education to parents pertaining to the relevance of hearing screening and early intervention, and recording patient information and hearing screen results.

EXPERIENCE

Newborn Hearing Screener

ABC Corporation - APRIL 2010 - JULY 2012

- Followed strict guidelines for patient/parent identification.
- Ensured patients were given thorough knowledge and efficient care of their hearing health.
- Assisted coordinator in confirming or rescheduling outpatient appointments, following up with equipment issues, and training new staff as needed.
- Retrieved patient information through Censor/Beacon to receive newborns face sheets. Verified mother and baby information matches and updating any.
- Scheduled all follow up appointments as needed.
- Maintained a clean and orderly work area.
- Explained how the test worked to uncertain and concerned new parents.

Newborn Hearing Screener

Delta Corporation - 2014 - 2019

- Performed sensitive testing/detail-oriented evaluation procedures in a level II Nursery. Screened newborns for hearing.
- Responsible for performing hearing screens on newborn babies.
- Provided educational information and literature to parents, recording results, and entering required data into.
- Explained the test to the parents to Perform the test Paperwork.
- Explained the screening procedure Utilizing special equipment to perform a screen
- Recorded the results in Soundata and TEHDI Communicate with doctors.
- Performed signal support functions and technical assistance for computer systems. Provided technical assistance and training for local area networks.

EDUCATION

- Certificate in Phlebotomy - (Ventura Community College - Ventura, CA)

SKILLS

Patient Care, Coordination Skills, Detail-Oriented.