

ROBERT SMITH

Packaging Engineer Intern

info@qwikresume.com | LinkedIn Profile | Qwikresume.com

To obtain a challenging Packaging Engineer Intern position within the consumer product industry that will enhance my knowledge and offer an invaluable experience.

EXPERIENCE

Packaging Engineer Intern

ABC Corporation - JANUARY 2014 - AUGUST 2014

- Responsible for the overseeing of daily product compatibility checks prior to launch.
- Worked with Pratt Industries to develop POP displays for various seasons.
- Responsible for data collection for line trials for upcoming new products.
- Successfully designed a new lip balm pack with a second hole allowing twice as many lip balm packs to be held on a strip resulting in the ability to effectively stock the fast selling product.
- Effectively utilized Solidworks and AutoCAD daily.
- Learned the capabilities of corrugate as a packaging material while collaborating with Pratt Industries to design displays.
- Attended meetings with packaging engineers and met with the Packaging Group Manager regularly to discuss projects and internship opportunities.

Packaging Engineer Intern

Delta Corporation - 2011 - 2014

- Contribute to the Distribution Incident Team on compiling data for root cause analysis Authored component specifications for various packaging .
- Analyzed ERP data and documented the manufacturing and purchasing plan every month Assisted managing inventory and two warehouses with 6 lots of .
- Quote returnable and expendable packaging systems Work with customer contacts to gain approval for packaging Maintain packaging records for all .
- Managed the developmental process for 100+ unique gift sets Produced component specifications, bill of materials, engineer change notices, pack-out .
- Supported marketing, Quality, product team and suppliers on new primary secondary and tertiary packaging design.
- Conducted packaging distribution tests for new packaging design, selected best materials within budget.
- Documented test reports and specifications, ensured the packaging meet quality requirements.

EDUCATION

- GED

SKILLS

Packaging engineering, Project Management, Lean Six Sigma, ASTM, ISTA Testing, ISO9001, Supplier Management, Printing Process.