

Objective

Seeking a Petroleum Supply Supervisor profession with n outstanding career opportunity that will offer a rewarding work environment along with a winning team that will fully utilize management skills.

Skills

Management Skills, Testing Skills.

Work Experience

Petroleum Supply Supervisor

ABC Corporation - February 2008 – June 2012

- Established an exceptional petroleum supply system and trained others to excel with the new supply procedures by incisively maintaining accountability for tens of thousands of line items totaling more than $1 billion dollars.
- Issued and dispensed bulk fuels and water from storage and distribution facilities to using units.
- Selected and performed impurity test on bulk fuel samples.
- Prepared correspondence, reports, operations, maintenance, and safety manuals.
- Supervised environmental protection activities and contingency planned.
- Established and implemented training for subordinates on effective practices of quality surveillance of petroleum stored in 5,000-gallon tankers, used as the model for training within all petroleum units on the installation.
- Assisted in qualifying 30 personnel in transporting fuel and ammunition materials.

Petroleum Supply Supervisor

Delta Corporation - 2005 – 2008

- Issued and dispensed bulk fuels and water from storage and distribution facilities to using units; operated equipment associated with petroleum and .
- Adhered to and enforced all OSHA and EPA guidelines and procedures Operated and maintained a HEMITT fuel tanker daily Delivered fuel to various .
- Supervised seven personnel and ensured their training, mission readiness, morale, welfare, and discipline.
- Supported six higher echelon organizations with over [] worth of equipment and over 250,000 gallons of petroleum products.
- Recognized by superiors as a team player that encourages peers and subordinates to seek excellence.
- Utilized military record keeping documents to maintain an accurate inventory of aviation fuel.
- Managed and distributed over 45,000 gallons of diesel during recertification, with no damage to the environment or equipment, staying in accordance.

Education

GED