

ROBERT SMITH

Petty Officer First Class III

info@qwikresume.com | LinkedIn Profile | Qwikresume.com

Over 12 years of planning and scheduling workflow using Material Requirement Planning (MRP) and other planning tools for each department and operation to ensure proper supply is available to fulfill customer demands. Management and leadership experience in Combat Systems Assessment/ Military Industrial Complex and very action oriented with a reputation for meeting challenging organizational goals and objectives.

EXPERIENCE

Petty Officer First Class III

ABC Corporation - 1999 - 2009

- Responsible for planning, scheduling, and coordinating production at multiple facilities (NAS Jacksonville and Iraq simultaneously).
- Coordinated production schedules to ensuring efficient operations, cycle time and adequate delivery of maintenance parts and material.
- Responsible for order status to meet customer (contractors) needs, reviewed any deviations for material application, communicated with internal customers (service member) in case of delays in manufacturing and review of inventory reports including deposition of slow-moving inventory as required.
- Directed, facilitated, and participated in projects that improved operations through teams and individual basis.
- Maintained work orders and purchase orders.
- Set boundaries with inventory control and created a plan that utilized Pre-Expended Bin or on hand inventory.
- Managed work order changes and or cancellations Prepared and maintained reports for backlog management within Naval Aviation Logistics Management System (NALCOMIS).

Petty Officer First Class

Delta Corporation - 1990 - 1993

- Managing a workforce of 30 junior military personnel on a day to day basis I worked in very high stress environments with difficult deadlines.
- During my time in the Navy I learned to organize, manage, and execute while constantly maintaining the professionalism required to excel in the .
- Have a high level of attention to detail and hundreds of hours of management training from military experts.
- Retired) Security SEPT 1993-MAY 1994.
- rank E-6, rate FTG1) - Operated and maintained computers and associated electronic / mechanical equipment, (i.e.
- radar, signal processing systems, target designation systems.) used for ship gun battery.

- Supervisor for Main Gunfire Control System.

EDUCATION

- MASTER OF SCIENCE in Logistics and Supply Chain Management - (Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University - Daytona Beach, FL)

SKILLS

Six Sigma, Project Management, Risk Mitigation, Inventory Management, SPC, Quality Control.