

ROBERT SMITH

Production lead Supervisor

info@qwikresume.com | LinkedIn Profile | Qwikresume.com

As a developing professional I understand what it takes to get the job done. I am a high-energetic, confident individual who enjoys using my infectious enthusiasm to contribute what is needed for a successful team. With a background in medical sales. Enable to establish long-term, fruitful relationships with clients, co-workers and outside resources.

EXPERIENCE

Production lead Supervisor

Pegatron Corporation/Apple Inc - JANUARY 2013 - 2019

- Coordinate and supervise the daily activities of employees on an assembly line.
- Motivate Evaluate, and direct employees to ensure productivity and quality standards are achieved.
- Coordinate work activities with other supervisors.
- Evaluate employee performance and create documentation as needed.
- Work with supervisor and other team leads to manage and prioritize staffing assignments to ensure customer demand and the production schedule are met.
- Execute and coordinate employee training to ensure that procedures are followed and meet all quality requirements.
- Use basic problem solving skills to ensure stable operation of the work cell.

Production Lead

ABC Corporation - 2009 - 2013

- Followed production schedule to be sure that all windows were produced according to specifications so when completed the customer had exactly what was ordered in the time frame given.
- Started off as a regular production worker for 2 yrs learning how to manufacture vinyl and aluminum doors using computer assisted vinyl welders, saws, pneumatic screw guns, and other tools necessary to complete production schedule to the customers demands.
- Was offered a lead production job and continued learning everything i could to be a benefit to the company.
- My production line had the lowest return rate of an .product produced.at the time I was employed there.
- Skills Used Team leadership skills along with oral and written explanations of everything that was produced on my line.
- Also ordered all materials necessary to ensure a quality product.
- Took inventory twice a year and also ordered all materials so that our department never had to wait for material..

EDUCATION

- Bachelor of Material Engineering - (University of Technology - Baghdad)

SKILLS

Microsoft Office Software, General building maintenance, General construction/Home remodeling, Self Motivated, Time Management Skills, As400.