

ROBERT SMITH

Road construction

info@qwikresume.com | LinkedIn Profile | Qwikresume.com

Road construction is Directing the review and analysis of division operations and monitors system performance to identify and solve problems while ensuring efficiency and cost-effectiveness, Managing and evaluating division operations to ensure the departments goals and objectives are achieved, Directing the investigation and resolution of customer complaints.

EXPERIENCE

Road construction

ABC Corporation - JULY 2001 - NOVEMBER 2004

- Used In this job i learned patience and perseverance, because no two job sites would be the same and you have to constantly adapt to your work environment.
- Worked around heavy equipment.
- Followed best practices to build and maintain trails from the Mountain Village to the summit of Lone Mountain.
- Used considerable judgement to adapt methods to meet new requirements.
- Completed jobs accurately with little direction and work independently.
- Enforced codes and regulations firmly, tactfully, and impartially.
- Typed from copy, rough draft or general instructions, forms, accounting and financial statements, court records, letters, payrolls, receipts, case histories, vouchers, departmental reports, permits or other materials, frequently requiring independent action and discretion on problems encountered.

Road construction

Delta Corporation - 1999 - 2001

- Get the broom ready and the cutter, then grab a shovel and get to work, sometimes a flagger for traffic to come thur, and run the broom and backhoe.
- And learned a new skill Wrote down the feet we got done at the end of the day, and wrote the times everyone got there and left.
- Tecno America Santiago, DR Administer Analyses of the Ground Engaged in physical Labor Collaborated with Team Member.
- Road work labor, shoveling, 10 12 hour shifts, 10k forklift/laul, cat cs44 compactor, pinning barrier walls, set up/repair silt fenceing.
- All weather conditions.
- Build roads, inspect the road, operate equipment.
- Preventative maintenance on construction equipment and vehicles that i used ranging from, forklifts and skid loaders all the way up to bulldozers and excavators.

EDUCATION

- High School Diploma
-

SKILLS

Training, Operating, Case Histories.