

ROBERT SMITH

Slitter Machine Operator

info@qwikresume.com | LinkedIn Profile | Qwikresume.com

Slitter Machine Operator is removes finished product from machine, and checks for quality by following written checklist and procedures, Placing finished product into pallet and adheres identifying labels, Performing minor machine maintenance such as cleaning and oiling machines, blades, or work pieces; emoting vacuum canister and end waste take up reels.

EXPERIENCE

Slitter Machine Operator

ABC Corporation - MAY 2000 - SEPTEMBER 2013

- Produced high quality product while maintaining optimum machine speed.
- Setup machines to customer specifications (measuring blades, setting controls per material).
- Set up and run Preco Laser unit to perforate materials.
- Used a micrometer to check size and quality of perforations.
- Labelled and packed product to ship.
- Used of Shop Floor, Axapta, SAP systems to create roll labels, pallet labels, and production reports.
- Created a well organized inventory, per machine.

Slitter Machine Operator

Delta Corporation - 1996 - 2000

- Performed precise cutting using a slicing machine to generate the finished product, above and beyond the standards of the company for distribution.
- To set an operator machine for metal feeding and cutting.
- Included Running machine, cutting out defects in paper rolls, and splicing the rolls back together.
- I started off being a packer, Id check tapes, package tape, weigh up boxes, and palletize.
- Then I became a slitter machine operator.
- Consisted of making sure the tape was cutting straight an clean, sharpening the blades every time, loading up the tape rolls for the process,.
- Main position was to run a slitting machine and cut down labels to ensure they are ready to ship out to the customer.

EDUCATION

- Diploma In General Classes

SKILLS

Slitting Machine Operator, Communication Skills.