

ROBERT SMITH

Structural Ironworker

info@qwikresume.com | <https://Qwikresume.com>

Structural Ironworker is responsible for supporting and assisting the Project/Craft Superintendent with the overall craft management of a large or small construction project.

APRIL 2009 - MAY 2009

STRUCTURAL IRONWORKER - ABC CORPORATION

- Placed spacers under rebar to lift bars off the deck.
- Cut bars with metal shears and torches.
- Reinforced concrete with a welded wire fabric.
- Substituted cables for rebar.
- Tightened cables with jacking equipment.
- Installed stairs, handrails, or curtain walls.
- Made sure all pieces are fitted properly and complete repairs as necessary.

2008 - 2009

STRUCTURAL IRONWORKER - DELTA CORPORATION

- Challenging, complex projects.
- Creative and innovative problem-solving environment.
- Supportive, communicative managers who reward your success.
- Opportunities for growth, training, and development.
- Flexibility to build what you want, where you want.
- Sets and installs structural steel girders, beams, columns, and other objects to complete forms for buildings, towers, bridges, and other structures.
- Performs all work related to signaling, rigging, bolting, and/or welding of structural steel.

EDUCATION

Advanced Welding Technical Education - (Jordan Tech Center)

SKILLS

Welding, Blueprint Reading, Rigging.